

If you are considering adoption,

you may have some BIG questions, all of which our center staff will be able to answer:

How can adoption be a good choice for me and my baby?

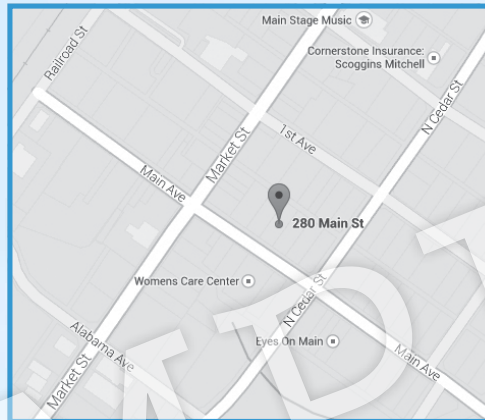

Can I choose the family for my baby?

How much contact can I have with my baby after the birth and after adoption?

How soon after birth can my baby go to the parents I choose?

How much will the child know about me?

Does the expectant father have any rights?

PREGNANCY CHOICES

555 1st Ave

Kent, WA 98031

555-555-5555

24 HOUR Hotline

1-800-555-5555

www.thebiggift.com

Looking for a way to put your child's needs first?
How about giving the

Learn about adoption.

PREGNANCY CHOICES

PREGNANCY CHOICES

Discover a new way to put your child's needs first and consider the best plan.

If you're not ready to be a parent, you can still give your baby the gift of life by choosing adoption.

Mothers who explore all of their options and those who make adoption plans have the courage to put their child's needs first and to consider what plan best meets their needs.

We are committed to the value and sanctity of human life. We are here to support you while you are looking for options for you and your baby.

If you would like to know more about adoption and want to talk to an Adoption Specialist, call 1-800-ADOPTION or visit:

"The center's staff made me feel confident in my decision. I feel that I made the best choice for my baby. I couldn't have asked for a better adoptive family. I feel joyful that I chose life for my child. Thank you Adopt Hope!" - Client quote

Adoptive parents love their children as much as if they had given birth to them.

Remember that this is your choice and nobody else's.

All services are FREE and Confidential

Pregnancy Choices | CALL today 1-800-338-8928