COULD Adoption be the BEST CHOICE
for your PREGNANCY?

We can help you explore your options and find the answers that are right for you and your child.

Adoption is about choices:

- Adoption is your choice. You can choose a family who will love your child while providing them with a happy, healthy home.
- Choose the amount of future contact. You decide how open you want the adoption to be. You can meet and have a personal relationship with the adoptive parents.
- Choose how much information about you that your child will be given. You can write your child a letter, give him a picture or any other information that you decide is right for you and your child.
- Your choices help provide your child with the best home possible: a loving family who will cherish him or her for life. When the time comes, your child will know that you loved them enough to make sure they had the very best chance at life.

We provide:

- A place where you can talk through your questions and get the answers you need to make whichever decision your heart says is the right one.
- 24/7 support - We provide personal, confidential assistance because we care about you and your baby.
- Trained counselors and a community of women who have been in your shoes and would love to help you through these tough decisions.
- Full access to profiles of approved adoptive families.
- Financial assistance with living expenses, housing and medical coverage throughout the adoption process.
- Fully paid legal expenses and attorney fees to protect your rights make sure adoption goes smoothly.
- Post-adoption updates and counseling. We will be here for you even after the adoption process.
- The assurance of knowing that our adoptive families have completed a thorough home screening process including background checks, financial assessment, physical and mental health examinations and careful interviews.
- No obligation even if you later decide to parent.
