Shelter in the Storm

Sanctity of Human Life

Sunday, January 17, 2021

I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Psalms 91:2

Even before we are conceived, God intimately knows and unconditionally loves each and every human being. Scripture tells us that not even one sparrow goes unnoticed by God - how much more valuable is a human soul to Him?

The ultimate Provider and Comforter, God gives refuge to all seeking shelter. Our mission is to show the women and men in our community that God cares for them by providing counseling, information, and loving support. We strive to extend God's unending provision to everyone facing an unplanned pregnancy, and to help young women make informed decisions.

Please prayerfully consider what God would have you do to help:
